Numb. 766.

The South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From MONDAY December 12th, to MONDAY December 19th, 1748.

STOCKHOLM, July 19.

THE Protestants of Poland have petitioned his Swedish Majesty to recommend their Interests to his Minister at Warsaw in a more effectual Manner than formerly, in order to induce the General Diet to pay more regard to to their Complaints, and grant them Redress.

Dublin, July 28. The King's-Fisher, Brentford, from Leverpoole to Carolina, was taken the 5th Instant by a Spanish Privateer, 125 Leagues W. of Cape Clear.

July 30. On Tuesday last died the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Hereford, First Viscount of England.

Naples, July 15. As soon as the definitive Treaty of Peace shall be sign'd, a Minister will be sent from this Court to London, in order to renew with that of Great-Britain the Negociation which was some Years ago begun, for concluding a Treaty of Commerce between the two Kingdoms.

Hamburgh, Aug. 2. The Report of a grand Alliance between some of the principal Courts of Europe, and the Empire, still continues, and it's assured that the King of Prussia will be one of the Principal Contractors.

London, Aug. 2. On Friday last a new Ship of 800 Tons was launch'd at Bird's Dock, which was call'd the Tuscany. We hear she is design'd for Leghorn, and then for the East-Indies, on Account of the Emperor.

Warsaw, July 17. All our Accounts from the East are full of the general Devastation occasioned in the Country by the Drought and Locusts. The Inhabitants have been obliged to retire into the neighbouring Palatinates, to avoid perishing by Famine.

Berlin, July 16. The great Heats have brought the Locusts into Silesia also, where they have shewn themselves in several Parts. Our Advices hitherto make their Numbers not very great; but the Damage they cause is nevertheless far from being inconsiderable. Last Tuesday 143 Families arrived here from the Palatinate. Several French Engineers are, 'tis said, expected here, his Majesty intending to establish a Military Academy.

London, August 4. The last Advices we have from Copenhagen inform us, that several of the Provinces, and almost all the great Cities in that Kingdom, have presented Addresses to the King, conceived in Terms the most warm, the most respectful, and the most affectionate that can be. In these they give him Thanks for that great and envied Happiness, which they have enjoyed under his Father's Administration and his own, whose Reigns, they say, will be famous to Posterity, not for Slaughter and Conquests, but for the Reformation of Government, and the Improvement of all the Arts of Peace, more especially correcting the Errors and Delays, that, in spite of the wise Regulations made in former Times, were crept into the Practice of their Laws, the setting up new Manufactures, reviving old, and encouraging Industry of every Kind; and finally for the various Instances of Royal Concern and Protection vouchsafed to their foreign Commerce, by which they assure, that their Shipping, their Number of Seamen, and the Value of their Exportations, have been doubled within the Space of Twenty-five Years.

Private Letters from Paris say, that the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy, eldest Son of the King of Sardinia, with Madam Victoire of France, is looked upon there to be as good as concluded.

We hear that the late Lord Viscount Hereford has left 1000 l. to be distributed to divers Persons, real Objects of Charity, such as shall appear to his Executors to have suffered extreamly by Losses and cross Accidents of Fortune.

London, October 11. Yesterday came Advice, that the Princess Successor of Sweden was safely deliver'd of a Prince the 27th past, and both in a fair Way of doing well.

October 13. We learn from Berlin, that the Secretary of the French Embassy, upon receiving a Courier from Paris, went immediately to Court, in order to acquaint the Ministers, that at the Time of the Messenger's leaving France, the Marquis de Valori was on the very Point of setting out on his Return to that City, and that he had very successfully executed the Commission with which he was charg'd on the Part of his Prussian Majesty.

The last Letters from Paris say, that the King had certainly nominated the Duke d'Aumont to repair to London in Quality of Ambassador from France; the Duke de Biron for his Ambassador at the Court of Vienna, the Count d'Estrées at Madrid, the Count de Hautefort to go as his Ambassador to Turin, and the President Ogier to reside in the same Quality at the Hague.

At Eleven last Night the Honourable Richard Leveson Gower, Esq; Son to the Right Honourable the Lord Gower, one of the Secretaries to the Congress at Aix-la-Chapelle, arrived at his Grace the Duke of Bedford's House, one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, with a Copy of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, which was signed at Aix-la-Chapelle, on Friday the 18th Instant N.S. by the Ministers of his Britannick Majesty, his most Christian Majesty, and the States General of the United Provinces; and likewise with an Account, That the Imperial, Spanish, Genoese, and Modenese Ministers have declared they will accede thereto, as soon as the necessary Forms will admit.

We hear, that Peace will be proclaimed, with the usual Ceremonies, in about six Weeks.

A Proclamation was issued out this Day, by their Excellencies the Lords Justices, for the Meeting of both Houses of Parliament, for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs, on Tuesday the 29th of November.

October 16. It is said that a Bill will be brought into the House of Commons the next Session of Parliament, for granting to such Soldiers and Seamen as shall obtain proper Certificates from their Officers, of their having faithfully serv'd their Country for a certain Number of Years, handsome Establishments for themselves and their Families, in Nova Scotia, and other Countries in America, in which they will be also settled and maintained the first Year at the Public Expence.

The Hon. Augustus Viscount Keppel, Commander of the Centurion Man of War of 60 Guns, is appointed Commodore of the Fleet ordered for the Mediterranean, fitting out with all Expedition, to relieve Admiral Byng.

Gosport, October 17. Yesterday arrived at Spithead, Admiral Byng, in the Boyne, with the Princess and Invernes Men of War, from the Mediterranean. Some more of this Fleet are put into Plymouth; and the Nassau, Antelope, and Feversham are gone round to the Downs.

London, October 18. Last Friday Mr. Hughes, one of his Majesty's Messengers, was dispatch'd from the Lords Justices to Aix-la-Chapelle, with their Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace.

The same Day the Hon. Richard Leveson Gower, Esq; who brought over the above-mentioned Treaty, received at his Majesty's Exchequer 500 l. being the usual Gratuity on such Occasions.

October 20. On Tuesday the Lords of the Regency met at the Cockpit, Whitehall, when, we are told, the Affair of the Reduction of the Forces came under Consideration.

Since which we hear, 16 Regiments are ordered to be disbanded, and several others will be put on the Half-pay.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy have taken up 40 Colliers, which are to bring over from Flanders the Regiments that are to be disbanded, And

We hear, that the Number of standing Forces is to be 19,000.

Whitehall, October 22. Last Night a Courier arrived here from Aix-la-Chapelle, with an Account, that the Plenipotentiaries of his Catholic Majesty had acceded, on the 20th Instant, N.S. to the Definitive Treaty of Peace; those of the Empress Queen on the 23d; the Duke of Modena's on the 25th, and the Accession of the Sardinian and Genoese Plenipotentiaries were soon expected.

LONDON, October 23.

The SUBSTANCE of the DEFINITIVE TREATY of PEACE.

The Preamble is very extensive, reciting the Original and Motives which occasioned the late War, as well as the Desire of all the interested Powers to put an End thereto, which gave Rise to the present Congress, &c. &c.

ARTICLE I.

PROMISES in the most solemn Manner to observe religiously the Peace concluded, and all the Articles and Clauses therein, without ever in the least infringing thereon.

II. Every Thing that has past during the War on all Sides to be buried in a general and eternal Oblivion.

III. The Treaties of Westphalia, Madrid, Nimeguen, Ryswick, Utrecht, Baden, Hague, the Quadruple Alliance, and the Treaty of Vienna, are all confirm'd, that they might not be derogated by the present Treaty.

IV. The Prisoners made, and the Hostages given during the War, be restored on all Sides without Ransom, and set at Liberty in one Month after the Exchange of the Ratifications, but be obliged to pay all Debts they have contracted; and all the Men of War or Merchant-Ships which have been taken since the Time stipulated by the Cessation of Arms, to be restored.

V. All the Conquests made during the War, in all Parts of the World, to be reciprocally restored.

VI. The Restitutions and Cessions to be made in six Weeks after the Ratification. The Artillery found in the conquer'd Places to be restored in the same Condition they were in at the Time the Towns were taken, excepting nevertheless that at Menin, Athe, Mons, Charleroy and Oudenarde.

VII. The Dutchies of Parma, Placentia, and Guastalla, to be ceded with all their Rights and Dependencies to the Infant Don Philip, under an expressed Clause, that those States shall return to the present Possessors, in case that Prince dies without Male Issue, or he or any of his Descendants should mount the Throne of Spain or the Two Sicilies.

VIII. Commissaries to be immediately appointed on all Sides, to assemble at Nice and Brussels, to effectuate the respective Restitutions and Cessions.

IX. The King of Great-Britain shall send to France two Noblemen of the first Distinction by way of Hostages, who are to remain there 'till certain Advice is received of the Evacuation of Cape Breton and all the Places which may have been taken in the East-Indies.

X. Means to be taken in the general Evacuation as commodious as possible for the Troops and Inhabitants.

XI. All the Papers and Records found in the Towns to be restored, expressly naming the Archieves of Mechlin.

XII. The King of Sardinia to be maintained in the Possession of all his Estates, principally those ceded to him in 1743, excepting that Part of the Plantantine he occupies, which he has ceded to the Infant Don Philip.

XIII. The Duke of Modena to be re-established in all his Estates; and Justice done him in respect to the Allodial Effects which he possessed in the Dutchy of Guastalla.

XIV. The Republic of Genoa to be re-established in all the Possessions it enjoyed before the War. The Money they had in the Banks of Vienna and Turin, and which was confiscated, to be restored, and the Payment of the Interests to commence from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications.

XV. Things to remain in Italy on the same Footing they were before the War, excepting the Cessions made to the King of Sardinia and the Infant Don Philip.

XVI. The Assiento Treaty is confirmed, and Permission granted to send to the Spanish Indies for four Years a Ship extraordinary, for the Non-Enjoyment of that Privilege during the War.

XVII. The Fortifications of Dunkirk to remain as they now are on the Land Side, but antient Treaties to be observed with regard to the Port and the Works on the Sea Side.

XVIII. The Differences on the Subject of the Sums which the Elector of Hanover pretends to be due to him, to be amicably adjusted; and the Affair concerning the Abby of St. Hubert, to be regulated at the same time.

XIX. The Article of the Treaty of the Quadruple Alliance, which secures the Succession of the Crown of Great-Britain to the House of Hanover, is confirmed in all its Points.

XX. All the States which his Britannick Majesty possesses in Germany guarantied by the Contracting Powers.

XXI. The said Powers guaranty likewise in the most solemn Manner the Pragmatic Sanction, that it may not be derogated by the present Treaty.

XXII. They guaranty in the same Manner Silesia and the County of Glatz to his Prussian Majesty.

XXIII. As also the Execution of all the Articles of the present Treaty.

XXIV. The Exchange of Ratifications to be made at Aix-la-Chapelle within a Month, by the Ministers of the Contracting Parties, and in six weeks by those of the Powers which acceded thereto.

The DEFINITIVE TREATY.

This Treaty they particularly contrive,
Does well deserve the Name —— Definitive:
For France will make appear, in future Story,
It prov'd Definitive —— to BRITAIN's GLORY.

Peter Timothy,

I HAVE sent thee inclosed, a List of all the Vessels now in the Port and Harbour of Charles-Town, (with the Places to which some are bound, and from whence others are come) in order to thy inserting it in the Gazette. I am persuaded shouldst thou publish such a List every Two or Three Months throughout the Year, it would give great Satisfaction to most of thy Readers at Home and Abroad; particularly to the Merchants & Planters in this Province. To which End I will be thy Correspondent. I have in the said inclosed List set down Vessels that have put in here bound to other Ports, and entreat thee to mend what Errors thou mayst perceive therein. And am,

Thy Friend and Reader,

The 10th Day of the 12th Month Dec. T.S.
